FLEMING JUNIOR HIGH PTA executive board received good news at last weeks regular meeting when Mrs. Mae Jones, Girls' Vice Principal reported that the second semester will have all classes moved into the new buildings, thus putting an end to the use of temporary bungalows, which are now being removed from the campus. Upon completion of the rehabilitation, Fleming Junior High School will become one of the most outstanding schools in the Los Angeles School District.

Mrs. Jones extended a cordial invitation to the executive board members for a tour of the new buildings February 2 at 10 a.m.

The resignation of Mrs. J. L. McMinn, Chairman of Honorary Life was accepted. President Hachiya appointed Mrs. Dana B. Morrison to serve as chairman of this committee, to be assisted by Mmes. Dallas Wallick and Ernest Degen.

The Board approved a recommendation to send five dollars toward the convention fund of the new Dodson Junior High PTA.

There will be no association meeting for the month of January. However, all members are urged to attend the regular meeting February 28, which will be held in the beautiful new library.

Mrs. Kenneth Bridges, Ways and means chairman, will make a report on the forthcoming cookie drive.

The Parent-Education series will continue for another four weeks alternating between Dodson Junior High and San Pedro High School. The February 1 class will be at San Pedro High School, announced Mrs. Dana B. Morrison, chairman.

LOMITA - SAN PEDRO COUNCIL PTA will sponsor a new series of junior movie matinees beginning Saturday, Jan. 28, at the Fox Strand Theater in San Pedro. The series to be shown over a period of ten weeks, every other Saturday, from noon to 2 p.m.

Mrs. Howard Fuitts, council movie chairman, and Harry Lane, manager of the theatre, have enthusiastically hailed the series as a step toward better movies for children and a one-way ticket toward curbing juvenile delinquency.

The movies selected to be shown during the series are, in order of showing: January 28, Escapade In Japan; February 11, Chief Crazy Horse; February 25, Birds and The Bees, with George Goble; March 11, From the Earth To The Moon; and March 25, Little's Hobo.

Rated as top quality, and scaled for children and adult viewing the movies will provide many hours of wholesome entertainment for the small fry.

A book of tickets for the series, at the cost of $1 gives a saving of 75 cents over the regular admission price. Each person attending must have his own book of tickets which may be purchased from local PTA Movie Chairmen, parents, preschoolers and elementary school children are invited and urged to attend. Students in parochial or private schools also are urged to attend.

The showing of junior Matinees has been a child welfare project of the Council for the past year and a half. Associations taking part in the project are: Bandini, Barton Hill, Cabrillo, Crestwood, Fifteenth Street, Halldale, Harbor City, Leland, Lomita, Point Fermin, Seventh Street, Par Western Place, South-shores, 223rd St., 259th Place, White Point, and Normant.
